

Seven Attributes of Successful Believers

In the Light of Surah Al-Mu'minun

1. The Divine Guarantee — Falah

قَدْ أَفْلَحَ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ

”Successful indeed are the Believers“

Allah gives a sure promise of success to the true believers. The word “Qad” shows certainty, so this success is not just a possibility. This verse was revealed when Muslims in Makkah were physically and economically weak. It teaches that true greatness does not depend on worldly wealth or power but on spiritual success. “Mominoon” means those who accepted the invitation of the Holy Prophet ﷺ, accepted him as their guide and followed his teachings. “Falah” means success, but the real success is the success of the Day of Judgement and the Hereafter.

2. Spiritual Humility — Khushoo

الَّذِينَ هُمْ فِي صَلَاتِهِمْ خَاشِعُونَ

”Those who humble themselves in their prayers“

Khushoo means more than simple concentration. It means having humility and a present heart during Salah because of the greatness of Allah. A believer feels like a servant standing before an all-powerful Master. This humility prevents Salah from becoming only physical movements and makes it a sincere act of worship and communication with Allah.

3. Avoidance of Futility — Laghw

وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ عَنِ اللَّغْوِ مُعْرِضُونَ

”Those who avoid vain talk“

Laghw means useless, unnecessary and fruitless talk or actions. Mu'ridun means turning away from such things. Successful believers do not waste their time in worthless talk or idle activities. They keep themselves away from bad and useless habits because such activities can become a habit and lower a person's character. Islam teaches Muslims to maintain good behaviour and not degrade themselves in the eyes of others.

4. Economic Purification — Zakat

وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ لِلزَّكَاةِ فَاعِلُونَ

”.Those who are active in deeds of charity“

Successful believers are active in giving Zakat and charity. Zakat should become a regular habit. It helps prevent wealth from remaining only among the rich and supports the poor. It also purifies the heart from Bukhl (miserliness) and Hubb-ud-Dunya (excessive love of the world). It creates a feeling of brotherhood and responsibility towards the poor.

5. Moral Integrity and Chastity

وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ لِأَفْوَاجِهِمْ حَافِظُونَ

”.Those who guard their private parts“

Islam teaches believers to protect their chastity and control their desires. Sexual relations are a natural need of men and women, but Islam places limits on its fulfilment. It is permitted within the lawful boundaries of Islam, especially through marriage. A man may have up to four wives, but he must treat them equally and fulfil their rights. Anyone who goes beyond the limits set by Islam is called a transgressor.

6. Social Reliability — Trusts and Covenants

وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ لِأَمَانَاتِهِمْ وَعَهْدِهِمْ رَاعُونَ

”.Those who faithfully observe their trusts and their covenants“

Amanah means trust and includes keeping someone's property, secrets and responsibilities safe. Ahd means promises, agreements and covenants. A believer must always take care of his trusts and fulfil his promises. He should not break agreements. A person cannot be a complete believer without being trustworthy.

Hadith:

إِيمَانٌ لِمَنْ لَا أَمَانَةٌ لَهُ

“There is no faith for the one who cannot be trusted.”

7. Consistency in Worship — Salah

وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ عَلَى صَلَوَاتِهِمْ يُحَافِظُونَ

”.And who strictly guard their prayers“

The first mention of Salah teaches Khushoo, or the quality of prayer. This final attribute teaches regularity and punctuality. Guarding Salah means offering it at its correct time and observing its proper conditions, such as Wudu. A believer should never allow worldly work or activities to make him miss his prayer. Regular Salah keeps a believer connected with Allah throughout the day.

The Ultimate Reward — Al-Firdous

أُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْوَارِثُونَ ۖ الَّذِينَ يَرِثُونَ الْفِرْدَوْسَ هُمْ فِيهَا خَالِدُونَ

“These will be the heirs, who will inherit Paradise: they will dwell therein forever.”

Allah promises Al-Firdous to believers who develop these qualities. The word “inherit” (Yarithun) shows something that a person receives as an entitlement. These believers will live in Paradise forever, enjoying peace and happiness.

Conclusion

The seven qualities of successful believers are faith, humility in prayer, avoiding useless activities, giving Zakat, protecting chastity, fulfilling trusts and promises, and guarding Salah. A person who develops these qualities becomes successful, and Allah promises such believers Al-Firdous and eternal success in the Hereafter.
