

Topic: Concept Of Worship (Ibabah)

. The Seven Attributes of the Successful believers in the light of sursh al Muminoon.

1. The Divine Guarantee.....قَدْ أَفْلَحَ الْمُؤْمِنُونَ

“Successful indeed are the Believers.”

Interpretation: This "success" is not a mere possibility; the use of the particle Qad (قَدْ) in Arabic denotes certainty. It was revealed at a time when Muslims were physically and economically weak in Makkah, serving as a powerful reminder that true greatness is defined by spiritual standing, not worldly status or material wealth. In the first Ayah the word 'Mominoon' is used which relates to those who accepted the invitation of the Holy Prophet towards Islam. They accepted him as his guide and promised to follow his footsteps. The word 'Falah' means success but true success is a person who successful of the day of judgement.

2. Spiritual Humility (Khushoo)....الَّذِينَ هُمْ فِي صَلَاتِهِمْ خَاشِعُونَ

“Those who humble themselves in their prayers.”

Interpretation: Khushoo is more than just concentration; it is a state where the heart is overwhelmed by the majesty of Allah, causing the body to be still and the mind to be present. It is the highest degree of submission, where a believer feels like a slave standing before an all-powerful Master. This humility prevents the prayer from becoming a mechanical set of motions and turns it into a genuine spiritual conversation.

3. Avoidance of Futility (Laghw)-....وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ عَنِ اللَّغْوِ مُعْرِضُونَ

“Those who avoid vain talk.”

Interpretation: In Arabic any useless, unnecessary and fruitless saying or doing is called (لغو). The word (معرضون) connotes the idea that Muslims do not waste their time in worthless talk or idle activities. They keep themselves away from such vile things. Here the point is that for it becomes a habit with those who keep on indulging in such things. Such persons are not liked by decent and civilised persons. That is why Almighty Allah prohibits Muslims from indulging in such things. Being a Muslim, we should not degrade ourselves in the eyes of others. Islam, no doubt, is known to be the best religion and the ways of human behaviour which are prescribed by Allah and practised and explained by the Holy Prophet are also unmatched .

4. Economic Purification (Zakat) - وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ لِلزَّكَاةِ فَاعِلُونَ

“Those who are active in deeds of charity.”

Interpretation: The phrasing "active in doing Zakat" suggests that charity is a constant habit of the soul. Zakat functions as a social safety net, preventing the circulation of wealth from being trapped only among the rich. It purifies the heart from Bukhl (miserliness) and Hubb-ud-Dunya (excessive love for the world), fostering a sense of brotherhood where the wealthy feel responsible for the welfare of the poor.

5. Moral Integrity and Chastity

وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ لِأَفْوَاجِهِمْ حَافِظُونَ . إِلَّا عَلَىٰ أَزْوَاجِهِمْ أَوْ مَا مَلَكَتْ أَيْمَانُهُمْ فَإِنَّهُمْ غَيْرُ مَلُومِينَ . فَمَنِ ابْتَغَىٰ وَرَاءَ ذَلِكَ فَأُولَٰئِكَ هُمُ الْعَادُونَ

“Those who guard their private parts—except with those joined to them in the marriage bond... but those whose desires exceed those limits are transgressors.”

Interpretation: Anyone who seeks fulfillment outside of these boundaries is described as (transgressors), as they break the social and moral fabric that keeps a society healthy and safe from diseases and emotional chaos. Sex with wives only is the legal and Islamic rule. Having sexual relationship is a natural need of men and women. Fulfillment of this need has been limited to husbands and wives only. Islam has permitted men to have four wives at a time, but it has made it compulsory for them to give each of the wives their due, and treat them equally. Men are also permitted to have sexual contact with the women they own (slave girls) and fulfill her needs like those of a wife. This permission is accorded to men not on the basis of marriage (NIKAH) but on the basis of property owned by them. This process of male and female slaves seemed to be an endless one. Wars between the Muslims and non-Muslims were going on continually. Men and women in these wars were left as booty and taken away by the contestants. For certain reasons some or all of them could not go back to their native countries and thus had to live forever where they were. Such persons included young men and women who could not live long without fulfilling their sexual needs. Consequently, they were sold or given to the natives as maid-servants and male servants as their properties. It was decreed that children born of such relationships could not adopt the name of the father who would be responsible for their (children's) needs and upbringing. In case such female servants embraced Islam, they were to be allowed to marry whomsoever they liked.

6. Social Reliability (Trusts and Covenants)- وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ لِأَمَانَاتِهِمْ وَعَهْدِهِمْ رَاعُونَ

“Those who faithfully observe their trusts and their covenants.”

Interpretation: Amanah (Trust) in Islam is incredibly broad. It includes material goods left for safekeeping, keeping secrets, and fulfilling professional duties. Covenants ('Ahd) include all agreements made between people and the ultimate covenant made with Allah. To be "Ra'un" means to be a shepherd of these promises constantly watching over them to ensure they are never broken. One cannot be a complete believer without Amanah. As the Hadith emphasizes:

لا إيمان لمن لا أمانة له

" (There is no faith for the one who cannot be trusted).

7. Consistency in Worship.- وَالَّذِينَ هُمْ عَلَى صَلَوَاتِهِمْ يُحَافِظُونَ

“And who (strictly) guard their prayers.”

> Expanded Interpretation: While the first attribute mentioned the quality of prayer (Khushoo), this final attribute emphasizes regularity and punctuality. Guarding the prayer means performing it at its correct time, with its proper conditions (Wudu, etc.), and never allowing worldly business to cause one to miss it. This consistency acts as a spiritual anchor that keeps the believer connected to the Divine throughout the day.

The Ultimate Reward: Al-Firdous- الَّذِينَ يَرِثُونَ الْفِرْدَوْسَ هُمْ فِيهَا خَالِدُونَ

“These will be the heirs, who will inherit Paradise: they will dwell therein (forever).”

Interpretation: The word "Inherit" (Yarithun) is used because an inheritance is something a person is entitled to. Allah promises that those who build this character will own the highest level of Paradise—Firdous—a place of ultimate luxury and peace where they will remain eternally.

III. The Five Foundations of Islam (Ahadith)

1. The Hadith of the Five Pillars

عَنْ ابْنِ عُمَرَ رَضِيَ اللَّهُ عَنْهُمَا قَالَ: قَالَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ: بُنِيَ الْإِسْلَامُ عَلَى خَمْسٍ: شَهَادَةِ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَأَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُهُ وَرَسُولُهُ، وَإِقَامِ الصَّلَاةِ، وَإِيتَاءِ الزَّكَاةِ، وَالْحَجِّ، وَصَوْمِ رَمَضَانَ

“Hazrat Ibne-Umer relates that Hazrat Mohammad (PBUH) said: The foundation of Islam has been laid upon five things: (1) Witnessing that Allah is one and only, and Muhammad (PBUH) is His servant and prophet. (2) Offering prayers. (3) Payment of Zakat. (4) Performing Haj. (5) Fasting during the month of Ramadan.”

2. The Hadith of Jibrael (A.S)

When the Angel Jibrael came to ask about the essence of Islam, the Prophet (PBUH) clarified the practical requirements:

الْإِسْلَامُ أَنْ تَشْهَدَ أَنْ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَأَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا رَسُولُ اللَّهِ وَتُقِيمَ الصَّلَاةَ وَتُؤْتِيَ الزَّكَاةَ وَتَصُومَ رَمَضَانَ وَتَحُجَّ الْبَيْتَ إِنْ اسْتَطَعْتَ إِلَيْهِ سَبِيلًا

“Islam means that you should bear witness that there is no God but Allah, and Muhammad (PBUH) is the messenger of Allah. You should observe Salah, pay Zakat, fast during Ramadan and perform Haj at the House of Allah if you are (financially and physically) capable of doing so.”

The Status of Muhammad (PBUH): In the phrase عَبْدُهُ وَرَسُولُهُ (His slave and Messenger), we learn that he is a human like us in his servitude to Allah, but unique in his role as the recipient of Revelation. He is the perfect model of the character described in Surah Al-Mu'minun.

* Salah as a Social Force: Punctuality in prayer translates to punctuality in life. A society that respects the timing of Salah is a disciplined society. It prevents the brain from becoming "the devil's workshop" by constantly refocusing the soul on virtue.

فاعدو لهم مستطعتم من قوة من رباط الخيل ترهبون به عدو الله وعدوكم

And prepare against them whatever you are able of power and of steeds of war by which you may terrify the enemy of Allah and your enemy and others besides them whom you do not know [but] whom Allah knows. And whatever you spend in the cause of Allah will be fully repaid to you, and you will not be wronged-

سُئِلَ رَسُولُ اللَّهِ ﷺ

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ was asked:

أَيُّ النَّاسِ أَفْضَلُ؟

“Who is the best person?”

قَالَ: رَجُلٌ يُجَاهِدُ فِي سَبِيلِ اللَّهِ

He ﷺ said: “A person who strives in the way of Allah.”

قَالُوا: ثُمَّ مَنْ؟

They asked: “Who is next?”

قَالَ: ثُمَّ مُؤْمِنٌ فِي شِعْبٍ مِنَ الشَّعَابِ

He ﷺ said: “Then, a believer living in a mountain valley.”

يَتَّقِي رَبَّهُ

He fears and obeys his Lord,

وَيَدَعُ النَّاسَ مِنْ شَرِّهِ

and keeps people safe from his harm.
